UGO TOGNAZZI

A film series

SATURDAY, APRIL 27, 2019

CASTRO THEATRE, SAN FRANCISCO

For our ninth program, we are proud to present Italian icon Ugo Tognazzi. As an actor, director and screenwriter, he performed in over 150 films in the Golden Age of Italian Cinema. Together with Vittorio Gassman, Marcello Mastroianni, Alberto Sordi and Nino Manfredi, Tognazzi invented and popularized the commedia alla italiana, a genre mixing comedy and melancholy, that swept the box office in Italy from 1960 to 1970.

10:00 AM - Property is No Longer a Theft (1973), directed by Elio Petri, 127 min., Cinecittà 35 mm, Titanus.

12:45 PM - Tragedy of a Ridiculous Man (1981), directed by Bernardo Bertolucci, 116 min., Cinecittà 35 mm, Warner Bros.

3:30 PM - In the Name of the Italian People (1971), directed by Dino Risi, 102 min., Cinecittà 35 mm, Rialto.

6:30 PM - La Cage aux Folles (1978), directed by Édouard Molinaro, 97 min., DCP, Park Circus.

10:00 PM - La Grande Bouffe (1973) directed by Marco Ferreri, 129 min, Cinecittà 35 mm, Drafthouse.
